

Busy Teacher Resources

June 13, 2005

SPECIAL EDITION: REL Network

The network of 10 Regional Educational Laboratories, serving geographic regions that span the nation, works to ensure that those involved in educational improvement at the local, state, and regional levels have access to the best available information from research and practice. <http://www.relnetwork.org/>

The Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory

The mission of the Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory (NWREL) is to improve educational results for children, youth, and adults by providing research and development assistance in delivering equitable, high quality educational programs.

NWREL reaffirms the belief that strong public schools, strong communities, strong families, and strong children make a strong nation. . . . and that strong schools ensure equity and excellence for all students.

<http://www.nwrel.org/>

North Central Regional Educational Laboratory

<http://www.ncrel.org/>

Helps schools and districts integrate technology in education in ways that lead to improved learning for all students.

<http://www.ncrtec.org/>

LABORATORY FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

The Mid-Atlantic Regional Educational Laboratory
Temple University Center for Research in Human Development and Education

The primary mission of the Laboratory for Student Success is to bring about lasting improvements in the learning of the mid-Atlantic region's increasingly diverse student population.

<http://www.temple.edu/lss/>