

Busy Teacher Resources

September 11, 2006

Remembering 9/11

<http://www.911digitalarchive.org/>

Teaching About 9/11: K-12 Activities and Resources

By Lorrie Jackson

September 11 -- looking back, moving forward

http://www.education-world.com/a\_tech/techtorial/techtorial005.shtml

Young Heroes of History
Historical Fiction for Children and Young Adults
by Alan N. Kay - Published by White Mane Kids

Links: Teaching about September 11th

 Although studies of September 11th are not directly related to the Young Heroes of History, we have found such a great need for this information that we are posting it on our web site.
<http://www.youngheroesofhistory.com/sept11links.htm>

Teachers will find this site a rich resource for helping students understand the tragic events of 9/11. Lesson plans for grades K-5, 6-8, and 9-12 are available.
<http://www.teaching9-11.org/>