

Busy Teacher Resources

September 12, 2005

Civic Participation for a Strong Democracy

<http://www.illinoisfirstamendmentcenter.com/>

As you explore the Voices for the First Web site, you will discover the First Amendment in a whole new way... how it really affects you and your rights!

<http://www.billofrightsinstitute.org/>

The mission of the Bill of Rights Institute is to educate young people about the words and ideas of America's Founders, the liberties guaranteed in our Founding documents, and how our Founding principles affect and shape a free society.

HELP TOMORROW'S CITIZENS
FIND THEIR VOICE.

TEACH THE FIRST AMENDMENT.

<http://www.teachfirstamendment.org/>

This site focuses on teaching students about the First Amendment, offering free teaching guides and lesson plans, tools for launching student-created media, and more.

A nationwide network of members advancing service-learning as a core part of every young person's education.

<http://www.service-learningpartnership.org/>

The Partnership, founded in 2001, is a national network of members dedicated to advancing service-learning as a core part of every young person's education. Service-learning is a teaching method that engages young people in solving problems within their schools and communities as part of their academic studies or other type of intentional learning activity.