

The H.E.P. and ICE programs at Lincoln Park Schools are based on the work of

Joseph Renzulli, Professor

University of Connecticut, Naeg—Center for Gifted Education and Talent Development and Director, National Research Center on Gifted and Talented

(<http://www.gifted.uconn.edu/> )

The Three-Ring Conception of Giftedness (the necessity of three interlocking traits)

Fostering the Renzulli model for talent development:

I will . . .
I can . . .
I want to . . .

Rather than:

I Q . . .
