

Summer extra credit:

Directions: Read another book from the list and complete the following project:

Imagine that you are the author of the book you have just read. Write a letter to a movie producer trying to get that person interested in making your book into a movie. Make sure to be very persuasive. Suggest a filming location and the actors to play the various roles. If the book is already a movie, you will need to convince a movie producer that it should be made into a newer and more updated version. Make sure to write the letter in proper business letter format.
